

MEDIA ALERT

INDUSTRY INSIDER SERIES

*An Intimate Afternoon with Hollywood Filmmakers
Kathleen & Stephen Gyllenhaal*

WHAT:

Stephen and Kathleen Gyllenhaal create films that ask thought provoking questions about who we are and how it shapes our future. Last year each of them won directing awards at the 2016 San Diego International Film Festival; Kathleen for her cutting-edge feature documentary IN UTERO, now in world-wide release, and Stephen for his feature film SO B IT. in theaters this April.

Join us as they share details about their upcoming documentary IN UTERO II their follow-up to IN UTERO. They will also discuss two TV show projects that delve even more deeply into their passion - the science that is changing how we think of pregnancy and how we understand the lifelong and social implications of our miraculous development as humans from conception to birth.

As industry insiders and committed filmmakers we will explore with them; questions of how to make thought-provoking films and TV shows and how they bring their vision to the screen in the rough-tumble world of movies and TV. This honest and personal discussion will give us insight into their experiences with movies, TV and art.

DATE: Thursday April 6, 2017
